

Curriculum Vitae – Andrew McKendrick

Email: awmckendrick@gmail.com

Phone: +44 7834 988193

Work Address: Institute for Fiscal Studies, 7 Ridgmount Street, Fitzrovia, London, WC1E 7 AE

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Research Economist, Institute for Fiscal Studies	[2022 –]
Research Assistant, Lancaster University	[2022]
Policy Intern, UK Department for Education	[2020]
Research Assistant, Lancaster University	[2019 – 2020]
Graduate Teaching Assistant, Lancaster University	[2018 – 2021]
Intern in Monetary Analysis, Bank of England	[2016 and 2017]

EDUCATION:

PhD Economics, Lancaster University “Pass with very minor corrections”	[2018 – 2022]
MSc Economics, Lancaster University Distinction; unawarded – studied as part of integrated PhD	[2017 – 2018]
BSc in Economics, Lancaster University First Class Honours – Top of Class	[2014 – 2017]

PUBLICATIONS AND WORKING PAPERS

How did parents’ experiences in the labour market shape children’s social and emotional development during the pandemic? IFS Report. 2023. With Sarah Cattan, Christine Farquharson, Sonya Krutikova, and Almudena Sevilla.

Parental labour market instability and children’s mental health during the pandemic. IFS working paper. 2023. With Sarah Cattan, Christine Farquharson, Sonya Krutikova, and Almudena Sevilla.

The policy menu for school lunches: options and trade-offs in expanding free school meals in England. IFS Report. 2023. With Jonathan Cribb, Christine Farquharson, and Tom Waters.

Paying Students to Stay in School: Short- and Long-term Effects of a Conditional Cash transfer in England. Lancaster University Management School Working Paper. 2022.

The Role of Faith and Faith Schooling in Educational, Economic, and Faith Outcomes. IZA Discussion Papers 13192, Institute of Labor Economics (IZA). 2020. With Ian Walker. *Under review at *Economica

CURRENT ACADEMIC AND POLICY WORK

Healthy Start Evaluation (with Britta Augsburg, Gabriella Conti, Christine Farquharson, Stephanie von Hinke, and Melanie Luhrmann)

Elite Peers and Returns to Selective Institutions (with Ghazala Azmat, Jack Britton, Dita Eckart, and Emma Tominey)

Longer-term impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on the dietary purchasing choices of British Households (with Britta Augsburg and Christine Farquharson).

Socio-economic Inequality in Scottish Education (with Luke Sibieta and James Lester)

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

Public Policy Exchange [2023]

Welfare and Policy Conference (WAP) [2023]

Royal Economic Society Conference (RES) [2021-2023]

Work, Pensions and Labour Economics Study Group (WPEG) [2021]

International Workshop on Applied Education Economics (IWAE) [2021]

European Association of Labour Economist Conference (EALE) [2021]