

Second International Long-term Care Project Meeting

Spring 2024

Date: June 13-14, 2024

Thursday, June 13

9:00-9:15 Welcome and introductions

While the statistics presented during the first two talks will be those for the US and England, the two host countries, the presentations themselves will also include a general discussion of difficulties in measurement and items which may be problematic. They will thus serve as a guide on where to focus our attention throughout the conference.
