

Eduin Boater Latimer

Education

2018-2019: University of Cambridge

MPhil in Economic Research, Distinction

- Overall mark of 77.3 (7th in a class of 43)

2013-2016: University of Oxford

BA (Hons) in Philosophy, Politics, and Economics, First Class

- Gained distinction in Preliminary Examinations
- Awarded John Hicks Bursary

2006-2013: Dame Alice Owens School

- A Levels: Maths (A*), Further Maths (A*), German (B), History (A*)
 - GCSEs: 8 A*s and 3 As, including Maths and English
-

Policy Reports

- Low Pay Commission Report 2022 (Co-authored), Low Pay Commission, January 2023
 - The Impact of the National Living Wage on Productivity (Sole Author), Low Pay Commission Research Paper, May 2022
 - Review of the National Living Wage (Co-authored), Low Pay Commission Report, May 2022
 - Low Pay Commission Report 2021 (Co-authored), Low Pay Commission, December 2021
-

Work Experience

June 2024 – Present: Research Economist

Institute for Fiscal Studies

- Carry out research and policy analysis relating to the welfare system and the low-paid labour market

Sept 2021 - May 2024: Economic Advisor

Low Pay Commission

- Led analysis on the impacts of the UK's National Living Wage
- Produced labour market data analyses to influence minimum wage negotiations
- Co-authored annual Low Pay Commission reports

- Conducted independent econometric research on productivity impacts of the National Living Wage

Sept 2019 - Sept 2021: Economic Advisor

Ministry of Housing, Communities, and Local Government

- Led a team of three economists focusing on local authority sustainability

Sept 2017 - Sept 2018: Assistant Economist

Department for Transport

- Led economic analysis on cycling funding and bus regulation reforms

Sept 2016 - Sept 2017: Assistant Economist

Department for Communities and Local Government

- Led economic analysis for the Government's Thames Estuary growth plan
-

Volunteering & Hobbies

June 2020 - Present

Blogging

'Evidently' Substack

- Write data-based articles on sports and popular culture, published in The Economist and Analytics FC

February 2021 - August 2021

Volunteer Economist

Pro Bono Economics

- Worked with three other economists on a policy report regarding UK disability benefit appeals

August 2019 – August 2023

Volunteer Facilitator and Event Coordinator

Friends Southern Summer Events

- Arrange and coordinated a week-long residential for 11–14-year-olds
 - Led a team of 15 adult volunteer facilitators
-

Additional Skills

- Languages: German (good written and spoken), French (basic written and spoken)
 - IT Skills: R (advanced), Stata (advanced), Python (basic), Excel (advanced)
-

Last updated: September 2024